

Unanimous Praise for AIR NAVIGATION British Empire Edition

By P. V. H. WEEMS

Lieutenant-Commander, U.S. Navy (Retd.)

Edited by ARTHUR J. HUGHES, O.B.E., A.F.R.Ae.S., and P. F. EVERITT, B.Sc., F.Inst.P

With a Chapter on Meteorology by Dr. Sverre Petterssen

476 pages, 9 × 6, 238 illustrations, flexible binding, 30/- net

"We took AIR NAVIGATION with us on our Arctic operation as our standard manual, and I personally found it extremely helpful."—H. Hollick-Kenyon (Soviet Search Expedition).

"... can be recommended not only as one of the leading text books for candidates for the first and second class navigators' certificates, but also as a book of reference for those who have already qualified."—G.A.P.A.N. Journal.

"... the most complete volume on the subject which we have yet had an opportunity of reading ... 'up-to-dateness' is the most striking and comforting feature of Commander Weems' book."—Flight.

"... likely to become the standard text book of the professional air navigator."—Popular Flying.

"Weems's AIR NAVIGATION will remain the standard work on the subject for many years to come."—Journal of the Royal Aeronautical Society.

"The book can be recommended with confidence to the aviator, navigator, or exploratory surveyor alike."—Nature.

"... can be recommended as a clear and comprehensive guide to the subject."—Morning Post.

"... I would have been grateful for this book before I took my Air Navigator's Certificate."—Captain Norman MacMillan in the "Daily Mail."

"The indebtedness of navigation to Lieutenant-Commander P. V. H. Weems has been materially increased by the British Empire Edition of his AIR NAVIGATION."—Journal of the Aeronautical Sciences.

"The book is exceedingly voluminous and thorough."—Aeroplane.

"A valuable addition to the Navigator's Library."—Col. H. J. Knerr, Chief of Staff, General Headquarters, Air Force, U.S. Army.

"The volume, abundantly illustrated, describes the different systems of navigation, the necessary instruments and installations and also contains a compilation of navigation tables: special attention is given to celestial navigation, radio and meteorology."—Interavia.

McGRAW-HILL PUBLISHING COMPANY LTD., Aldwych House, London, W.C.2

RUMBOLD

PUT COMFORT INTO AEROPLANES